NEW COLLEGE OF FLORIDA
NO TRESPASS ORDERS & APPEAL PROCEDURE

Pursuant to Florida State Statue 1012.97, and New College Regulation 3-6007, Campus Police Officers are empowered to enforce all State laws, local ordinances, and College policies on or within 1000 feet of College property. Consistent with their responsibility to ensure the campus remains safe, all officers are authorized to issue a trespass warning to anyone under the following circumstances:

- An individual has committed a crime
- An individual has violated a College policy or procedure
- An individual is engaged in threatening or disruptive behavior
- An individual is found in a location at a time or under circumstances that causes concern for the safety of persons and / or property on campus.
- Following a request from a College administrator or other member of the College community where, after review by Campus Police Department officials, the request is deemed to be warranted.

A No Trespass Order advises a person that they are not authorized to be on College property, or any portion thereof, and may be subject to arrest without further warning if he or she refuses to leave the property or returns at any time in the future. No Trespass Orders are permanent, and remain in full force and effect unless revoked by the appeal process.

Individuals who have received a No Trespass Order and wish to have the order lifted must first submit an appeal to the Campus Police Chief. The appeal may be made in writing to:

Chief of Police
New College of Florida Police Department
5800 Bay Shore Road
Sarasota, FL 34243-2197
or:

- Via email to mkessie@ncf.edu
- Telephonically during business hours at (941) 487-4210
- In person by appointment only while the trespass warning is in effect

The Police Chief will personally review all appeals and reply to appellants in a timely manner.

Should the Police Chief decline to revoke the No Trespass Order, the appellant has the option of then appealing to a Trespass Appeals Board appointed by the College President. The decision of the Trespass Appeals Board is the final decision of the College, and may not be appealed. An appeal to the Trespass Appeals Board can be initiated by contacting the following office:
