SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP) INDEPENDENT

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for a process called "verification". Federal regulations require that we check the accuracy of the information provided on the 2014-2015 FAFSA with this worksheet and requested documents. We need clarification of the food stamp information reported on your original FAFSA. Please complete this form and return it to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid.

Final eligibility for aid cannot be determined until all requested documentation is received and the verification process is complete. Additional documentation may be required in order to complete the verification process.

Please read carefully. If this form is not completed and required accompanying documentation not submitted, it may delay the processing of your aid.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP may be known by another name in some states. In order to determine the name used in a specific state, please call 1-800-433-3243.

Student's household includes:

- The student.
- The student's spouse, if the student is married.
- The student's or spouse's children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provides more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2015.

Did you or a member of your household receive benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2012 or 2013?

☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, you must attach a statement from the applicable agency that shows you received food stamps in 2012 or 2013.

Each person signing this form certifies that all the information reported on it is complete and correct. The student (and spouse if married) must sign this form.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.
