Accomplishments from the first year of operations (2010-2011)

- Dialogues with Florida's Past presentation series—three dialogues matching an archaeologist and, respectively, a political scientist, journalist, and government official—opened up important questions and concerns on Florida's past.
- ArchaeologyFest! attracted families to learn about archaeology and regional heritage.
- Five Years of Looking for Angola: Accomplishments and New Objectives for the Public Anthropology Study of an early 19th-century Maroon Community on the Manatee River, Florida symposium set the agenda for the public anthropology program.
- Documentation of the Galilee Cemetery in Sarasota.
- Analysis for Looking for Angola covered by C-Span 3 as part of its LCV City Tour.
- Open house for New College's 50th anniversary celebration.
- Undergraduate presentations at the annual meeting of the Florida Anthropology Society.
- Completion of the FIPSE US Department of Education grant P116Z080257
- Director Baram promoted to Professor of Anthropology.

About NCPAL: Preserving Regional Heritage

Founded in 2010, NCPAL is committed to facilitating education, outreach, and the study of archaeology within a broader anthropological and interdisciplinary context. As both a physical space and intellectual project curated by New College students and faculty, NCPAL is dedicated to the ethical advancement of knowledge about past human cultures and societies in order to engage with social issues of the present. Utilizing the rich resources of the Sarasota-Manatee region's diverse communities, NCPAL produces and disseminates valuable knowledge of our shared cultural heritage.
