

Religion AOC Checklist—2019 and later (to be printed on yellow paper)

All Religion students must take at least 8 courses. Those slashing in Religion must take at least 6 courses.

All Religion students must take:

(please provide course name and date/semester taken)

___ 1. Introduction to the Study of Religion: _____

All Religion students must take courses in the following areas. These also represent the requirements for a slash in Religion, recognizing that the student who slashes will take fewer course in #5, covering their area of focus.

___ 2. A conceptual course: _____

___ 3. A scripture course: _____

___ 4. A course that engages questions of religion and society: _____

___ 5. Coverage of one's area of focus: _____, _____, _____

___ 6. A course in a tradition different than one's area of focus: _____

You are encouraged to have one of the courses fulfilling the above be:

A religion-oriented course in another discipline, such as Anthropology, Art History Classics, Gender, History, Literature, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Theatre, etc. (for example, Psychology of Religion): see #__ above, _____

We strongly encourage all AOCs to take:

___ 7. The Religion Capstone Seminar (which has a different focus each year): _____

Please also list any additional courses that feel relevant to your AOC:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

Note, we do not require the study of a language, but if this is an interest of yours we certainly encourage it.